Grant County Health Department

The Grant County Health Department is available to answer any questions you may have regarding the Prenatal Care Coordination Program.

Pregnant?

Caring for your baby begins as soon as you become pregnant!

Good prenatal care is important!

If you are pregnant, you need to take care of your baby before it is even born. That means taking care of yourself!

Where can you go for help and support?

Let us help you. Good prenatal care is the first step to having a healthy baby. The Grant County Prenatal Care Coordination Program (PNCC) is here for you!

What Prenatal Care

Coordination offers you:

The Grant County Health Department's Prenatal Care Coordination Program provides you with regular visits with a nurse and information on a wide variety of issues concerning pregnancy such as:

- *Childbirth Preparation
- *Child Development
- *Newborn Care
- *Positive Parenting
- *Labor & Delivery
- *Medications
- *Breastfeeding
- *Child Safety
- *Exercise
- *Immunization

How does this program affect visits with your doctor?

These visits will not take place of visits with your family doctor. We are here to work with you and help communicate any special needs you might have to your doctor.

Who is eligible?

Only women who are pregnant and eligible for Medical Assistance or Healthy Start qualify for Grant County's Prenatal Care Program.
